Technical Advisory (TA)
DL 25-022

SUBJECT: Temporary Protected Status – Venezuela UPDATE

Overview:

Temporary Protected Status (TPS) is a temporary status provided to nationals of specifically designated countries that are confronting an ongoing conflict, environmental disaster, or extraordinary and temporary conditions. The Secretary of Homeland Security has the discretion of deciding when a country's eligibility is discontinued or extended.

Details:

The Department of Homeland Security (DHS) has announced the termination of Venezuela's 2021 Temporary Protected Status (TPS) designation. Following a Supreme Court decision on October 3, 2025, the termination is now in immediate effect.

TPS beneficiaries who provide an approved EAD/I821 with an expiration date of October 2, 2026, are entitled to a credential valid until that date.

Additionally, TPS beneficiaries whose TPS-related documents show expiration dates of September 9, 2022; March 10, 2024; April 2, 2025; or September 10, 2025, are entitled to a credential valid until April 2, 2026.

Those that do not meet the requirements listed in the ADT are not entitled to issuance or a 60-day permit.
